

Workshop: Co-operation of actors in long term care: how to establish effective relationships between the private, non-profit and public sector?

1) Workshop - First Day (Thursday, 25 April 2013)

Location: Komunitní centrum Prádelna (Community center)

Topic: Community approach to social care: cooperation between the private, non-governmental and public sector: invention and possibilities. Based on the specifics of the Czech environment and experience in community approach from the United Kingdom the aim is to present the different approaches and possibilities to apply the community approach to social care.

9:00 – 9:30 Registration

9:30 – 10:00 Workshop introduction and topic definition

Jan Šindelář, Project Coordinator “Current trends and social innovation in long term and direct care”, European Development Agency, Ltd.

10:00 – 11:00 Engagement of local community in the United Kingdom

Chris Hariss, MsSence

11:00 – 11:15 Coffee break

11:15 – 12:00 Community cooperation in the Czech Republic: An example of the Komunitní centrum Prádelna (together with a tour around the community center)

Jan Čihák, director of the Komunitní centrum Prádelna

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch

13:00 – 13:45 The potential of local communities and other social innovations in the Czech Republic

Monika Válková, Adviser to the Minister of Labor and Social Affairs

13:45 – 14:45 Practical part: Implementation of knowledge into practice

Guided by the expert team of the project consortium project “Current trends and social innovation in long term and direct care”

14:45 – 15:00 Coffee break

15:00 – 17:30 Discussion and evaluation of practical part

Guided by the expert team of the project consortium project “Current trends and social innovation in long term and direct care”

2) Workshop - Second Day (Friday, 26 April 2013)

Location: Café Na půl cesty (9:00 – 12:30)
Mlsná Kavka (13:00 – 17:30)

Topic: Social enterprises and the principles of social entrepreneurship. Multi-source financing. The aim is to highlight the various search capabilities, financial resources and, therefore, the possibility of reducing dependence on state resources.

The Café Na půl cesty

9:00 – 9:30 Summary of the first day

Jan Šindelář, Project Coordinator “Current trends and social innovation in long term and direct care”, European Development Agency, Ltd.

9:30 - 10:15 Social entrepreneurship in the United Kingdom

Alan Paterson, MsSense

10:15 – 10:45 British model in the Czech Republic: The example of the Domov Sue Ryder

Radka Kulhánková, Communications Coordinator, Sue Ryder

10:45 – 11:15 Coffee break

11:15 – 12:15 The legislative environment for social entrepreneurship in the Czech Republic:
Possibilities for public organizations

TBC

The Restaurant Mlsná Kavka

12:15 – 13:15 Lunch

14:00 – 15:00 Engagement of target groups in social entrepreneurship: an example of Mlsná Kavka

Lucie Šišková, Income therapist Klub V. kolona, Greendoors, o.p.s.

Michal Dolejš, Business development manager (within Rok jinak) Greendoors, o.p.s.

15:00 – 16:00 Steering committee 2nd Meeting